Read every day!

This summer read 10 books from the list (3 can be your own choices) and be eligible to celebrate your accomplishment in the fall with a Reading Party. You will also be eligible to vote for the best Sasquatch, Young Reader's Choice and the Bill Towner Nonfiction books.

Have a parent/guardian put their initials beside each of the books that you read.

Then turn in this reading log by September 15, 2017.

The Pacific Northwest Library Association's Young Reader's Choice Award is the oldest children's choice award in the U.S. and Canada. The award was established in 1940 by a Seattle bookseller, the late Harry Hartman, who believed every student should have an opportunity to select a book that gives him or her pleasure.
